Mandip Randhawa

Pronounced Munn-deep Run-da-wa

Staff Product Designer with 13+ years of experience. Most recently designed AI products at Course Hero. Spent six years on Shopify's Marketing Tab, taking it from a handful of ad integrations to a full merchant growth platform.

EXPERIENCE

Staff Product Designer at Course Hero

2024 – 2025 | Toronto (Remote)

- Took Course Hero from a one-off answer tool to a semester-long study companion. Designed Study Tools and Study Boards.
- Led the cross-functional design sprint that set the 2024 product vision and roadmap, aligning PM, engineering, and research on how to reach the business goals.
- Designed AI product patterns for trust, sourcing, error recovery, and setting expectations for what AI can and cannot do.
- Study Boards drove a 16% increase in weekly active users.

Staff Product Designer at Shopify

Staff 2021–2023 · Senior 2019–2021 · Designer 2017–2019

2017 – 2023 | Toronto (Hybrid)

- Grew the Marketing Tab from a handful of ad integrations into a full merchant growth platform: Shopify Email, Campaigns (four major versions), Automations, Templates, and Analytics.
- Drove a 52% increase in marketing-attributed sales.
- Built the foundation on a six-month, 17-participant diary study. The team used its Trigger → Goal → Build → Act → Measure → Learn framework for major product decisions.

Product Designer at Kinetic Commerce

2015 – 2017 | Toronto

- Owned core product design for a B2B companion app for in-store retail associates.
- Adapted it for Kiehl's, Aldo, Indigo, and L'Oréal, each with its own workflow and brand onboarding.

UX/UI Designer at Nascent Digital

2013 – 2015 | Toronto

- Lead designer on client work for TELUS, Heart & Stroke Foundation, eHarmony, and Flickr, across telecom, healthcare, and consumer brands.
- Owned UX strategy and design from research through delivery, across mobile apps, responsive web, and admin dashboards.

UX/UI Designer at Grocers Plus

2013 – 2014 | Toronto

- Took a personalized grocery discount app from concept to MVP.
